Organization and Instructions

Organization:

This product includes the instructions for a year-long interactive notebook to accompany Snapshots of Ancient History. The pieces for the notebook are arranged in chapter order so you can print off the pieces as you go.

There are two files that accompany this instruction file. Medieval-INB-PrewrittenAnswers.pdf and Medieval-INB-NoAnswers.pdf.

In the Medieval-INB-PrewrittenAnswers.pdf, many components of the notebook are accompanied by a prewritten answer. For example a flap that defines “History” is accompanied by a definition of history to glue under the flap. This file is best suited to younger students or students who struggle with handwriting or if you simply want a shortcut to the notebooking.

Medieval-INB-NoAnswers.pdf does not contain prewritten answers, instead students are expected to write answers themselves. This file is best suited to older students or if you would like to use these notebooks as handwriting practice.

The instructions in this notebook are aimed at the Medieval-INB-PrewrittenAnswers.pdf file. If you are using the version without answers, whenever the instructions say to glue in the correct definition/description, simply have the student write their own version instead or reference the InstructionsForLapbooks.pdf section on using Medieval-INB-NoAnswers.pdf.

You can arrange the pieces in your notebook in chapter order or arrange them based on civilization. If you would like to arrange the pieces by civilization, leave 8-10 pages at the beginning of the notebook for the miscellaneous chapters. Then leave an additional 8-10 pages per civilization. There are cover pages for each civilization at the end of the Medieval-INB-PrewrittenAnswers.pdf and Medieval-INB-NoAnswers.pdf files.

If you are ever unsure how to fold a notebook piece, please refer to the InstructionsForLapbooks.pdf file which includes pictures of all the completed elements.

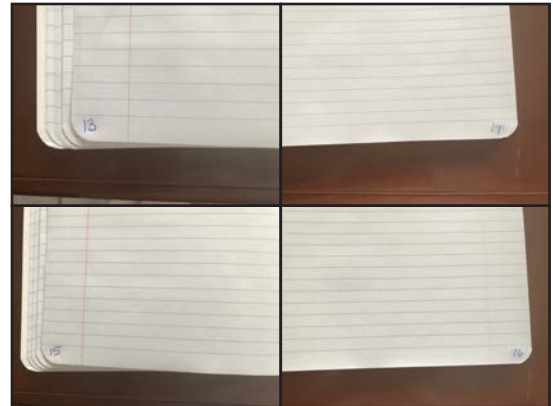

How to complete each lapbook:

1. The following pages include instructions on how to complete each specific notebook section.
2. Pieces can be placed in the notebook however you wish.
3. Solid lines are cut lines.
4. Dotted lines are fold lines.
5. Students are encouraged to color and decorate their notebooks to make them their own and make the information easy to identify. Additional information can be written in the empty space in the notebook.
6. Types of glue: White liquid glue will provide the strongest hold. The best method is to make small dots with the glue about one inch apart. Large dots or lines of glue will likely make bumps under the pages and make a larger mess. High quality glue sticks are easier for young children to use and less messy, but some elements may need occasional re-gluing if you're using a glue stick.

How to Make an Interactive Notebook

1. Choose your notebook. I highly recommend a composition notebook. Composition notebooks are cheap and sturdy. The pages will hold up to all the gluing and you don't have to worry about pages coming loose. You can of course use any type of notebook you like or simply use loose pages.

2. Number your pages. Numbering your pages will allow you to make a table of contents and keep track of your information throughout the year. This project will not fill an entire notebook, so you only need to number the first 50 pages or so.

3. Color and glue in your cover.

4. Glue in your table of contents. The table of contents is a blank list of all the chapters in Snapshots of Medieval History. As you complete your notebook, come back to this page and write in the page number each chapter can be found on.

Instructions for Interactive Notebooks with prewritten answers

Chapter 1:

1. If you are using the cover pages for different topics, color and cut out the cover page for “Europe in the Early Middle Ages.”
2. Glue the cover into the notebook.
3. Leaves space after this cover for chapters 1, 2, 7, 10, 11, and 15.
4. Cut out the eight pages for the Emperor Justinian mini-file book.
5. Add an illustration on each page to go along with the description.
6. Arrange the pages in order with page 8 on the bottom and page 1 on top. Glue or staple the pages together to form a book.
7. Glue the back of page 8 and place in the notebook.

Chapter 2:

1. Cut around the edges of the “Causes of the Middle Ages” concept map.
2. Cut out the “What Caused the Middle Ages” flap and four “Which caused” flaps. Color if desired.
3. Glue the top edge of the “What Caused the Middle Ages” flap over the “Fall of Rome” concept bubble.
4. Glue the top edge of the four “Which caused” flaps over the four smaller concept bubbles.
5. Glue the entire concept map in the notebook.
6. Cut out the “Clovis” and “Brunhilda” flaps. Color or add illustrations if desired.
7. Glue the “Clovis” flap in the notebook.
8. Glue along the top edge of the “Brunhilda” flap and place onto top of the “Clovis” flap.

Chapter 3:

1. If you are using the cover pages for different topics, color and cut out the cover page for “Medieval China.”
2. Glue the cover into the notebook.
3. Leaves space after this cover for chapters 3, 8, 9, 22, and 29.
4. Cut out the “Chinese Inventions and Discoveries” pocket along the solid lines.
5. Fold along the dotted lines, tucking the tabs underneath to create a pocket.
6. Glue along the tabs and place in the notebook.
7. Cut out the star shape. Color if desired. Add any additional facts or illustrations you wish onto the back. Place the star in the pocket.
8. Cut out the “Sui Dynasty” flap. Glue directly in the notebook. This flap will be the base of a flip book of Chinese Dynasties.
9. Cut out the two mini-file book pages. Add an illustration to each page.
10. Glue the “Sui Great Wall” page directly in the notebook. This will be the base of a mini-file book of Chinese buildings.
11. Glue under the sidebar of the “Grand Canal” page and glue on top of the “Great Wall” page.

Chapter 4:

1. If you are using the cover pages for different topics, color and cut out the cover page for “Medieval Africa.”
2. Glue the cover into the notebook.
3. Leaves space after this cover for chapters 4, 16, 18, 26, and 27.
4. Cut out the “Life in Axum” petal book.
5. Add an illustration onto each flap.
